

Republic of Cuba

Public Prosecutor's Office of the Republic of Cuba

15th INTERNATIONAL MEETING ON CRIMINAL SCIENCES AND 3rd EVENT ON LEGALITY, LAW AND SOCIETY

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Public Prosecutor's Office of the Republic of Cuba convenes the 15th International Meeting on Criminal Sciences 2023 and the 3rd Event on Legality, Law and Society, to be held at the Convention Center in Havana, Cuba, from March 15 to 17, 2023, co-sponsored by the National Union of Jurists of Cuba and the University of Havana Law School.

The distinct academic and scientific tradition of this event makes it a conducive forum for the discussion of key issues that transcend Society and Law, with special reference to criminal sciences, in a globalized world immersed in the confrontation of the pandemic caused by COVID-19, which unquestionably impacts on all spheres of life processes, with an evident health, economic, social and legal crisis.

In this scenario, prosecutors, attorneys, lawyers, judges, police officers, penitentiary specialists, criminalists, criminologists, victimologists, forensic doctors, forensic psychiatrists, officials who work with under-age victims and minors with behavioral disorders, psychologists, sociologists, comptrollers, auditors, economists, legal advisors, professors, university students and other professionals are invited to debate from a multidisciplinary perspective that allows us to present our points of view and build alternatives and solutions to the problems of the contemporary legal environment among all of us.

MAIN THEMES

- Constitution and Public Prosecutor's Office. Challenges in contemporary times
- The role of the State as a guarantee of efficient public management
- State, Society and Law in the fight against corruption and other associated manifestations

- Effective judicial protection and Due Process, the main axes in the criminal debate.
- Public Prosecutor's Office in pandemic times. Experiences in the criminal process and in the integral protection of strategic sectors.
- Economic and civil service crimes
- Gender, Law and Violence Prevention
- Models of sentence execution. The execution of sentences in persons deprived of liberty
- Challenges of the Substantive and Procedural Criminal Reform in Cuba
- The empowerment of women from a constitutional perspective. Role of the prosecutor in the defense of their rights
- New Family Code in Cuba as the maximum expression of the protection of people's rights. Participation of the Prosecutor
- Cybercrime. Collaboration of service providers

The event will comprise Lectures, Keynote Speeches and Papers previously selected by the Scientific Committee, which shall be submitted digitally by January 4, 2023. Delegates may also participate as delegates who, without presenting papers, cover the established registration fee.

Those interested should include the following information: name(s) and surname(s) of the author(s) (up to two per paper), title of the paper, institution to which it belongs and e-mail address.

Papers should not exceed 30 pages and should be presented in Times New Roman font, size 12, spacing 1.5, justified text, citations and bibliographical references according to APA style guidelines. In addition, an abstract of 250 to 500 words, including key words, should be submitted via e-mail to cienciaspenales2023@fgr.gob.cu.

For delegates, speakers and students, the registration fee includes accreditation / access to all scientific activities / certificate of participation and attending the closing ceremony. Delegates who attend remotely, will receive the certificate of participation.

REGISTRATION FEES

- International in-person delegate speakers – 200 USD
- International in-person delegates – 250 USD
- International accompanying delegates – 120 USD
- International virtual delegates – 80 USD
- International in-person students – 100 USD

- National in-person delegates – 1500 CUP (lunch is not included)
- National virtual delegates – 200 CUP
- National students – they will participate in sessions holding name tags given to Higher Education Centers
- ✓ Undergraduate students must present, at the time of registration, their student ID card and the letter from the university to which they belong, duly signed and stamped.
- ✓ For delegates, speakers and students, the registration fee includes accreditation / access to all scientific activities / certificate of participation.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Havanatur, S.A. will be the OFFICIAL travel agency for the event, represented by Specialist Reinier Arredondo Despaigne.

Phone: 72047412

E-mail: esp5.eventos@havanatur.cu

For further information, please contact:

- Ms. Patricia María Rizo Cabrera, MSc
ORGANIZING COMMITTEE COORDINATOR

Phone: (53) 7206 6122

E-mail: relaciones@fgr.gob.cu

-Ms. Migdalia Luna Cisneros, BA
Congress Professional Organizer, HAVANA CONVENTION CENTER

Phone: (53) 7208 6176

E-mail: migdalia@palco.cu

-Asseneth Verdecia Rodríguez, MSc
ORGANIZING COMMITTEE COORDINATOR

Phones: (53) 7205 0150 / (53) 7205 0160

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE
15th INTERNATIONAL MEETING ON CRIMINAL SCIENCES 2023
3rd EVENT ON LEGALITY, LAW AND SOCIETY